ABOUT THE ECONOMIC CLUB:

As the Premier Forum for Leaders, The Economic Club of Washington, D.C. is at the nexus of public and private sector economic policy and activity in our nation. Members represent over 550 businesses located in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan region that are at the forefront of the private sector economy. They meet regularly to hear top-level economic policy makers and key corporate leaders address current issues. Featured speakers in recent years have included the President of the United States, the current and immediate past Secretaries of the Treasury, the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board and CEOs of Fortune 100 corporations. The Economic Club is consistently ranked among the Top 10 speaking forums for CEOs. David Rubenstein, Co-founder and Managing Director, The Carlyle Group, is the Club president.

Economic Club of Washington, D.C. members and over 1500 distinguished guests gathered on June 5, 2012 for a festive 25th Anniversary Dinner to hear Club President David Rubenstein and featured guest Warren E. Buffett, Chairman and CEO, Berkshire Hathaway, Inc., engage in an interesting, lively and informative conversation.

David Rubenstein and past Club presidents Vernon E. Jordan, Jr. and Senator George Mitchell toast the Club's 25 years.
