OF WASHINGTON, D.C.

THE ECONOMIC CLUB OF WASHINGTON, D.C.
FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

ACADEMIC YEAR 2018-2019

DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 23, 2018 - 5:00PM

Fellowship Application Selection

I am applying for:

The Vernon E. Jordan, Jr. Fellowship

- Two $10,000 stipends will be awarded to doctoral-level students from Consortium institutions and to previous winners of the Economic Club scholarship program, to support independent research in areas of interest to the Economic Club. Areas of concentration could include economics, finance, international trade or business.

The Philip M. Dearborn Fellowship

- The Economic Club of Washington, D.C. and the Consortium of Universities of the Washington Metropolitan Area are pleased to announce the Philip M. Dearborn Fellowship award. Since the 2007-2008 academic year, The Economic Club offers a $10,000 doctoral-level fellowship to Consortium students and to previous Rubenstein scholarship recipients, honoring the late Philip Dearborn, a leading national authority on urban finance, intergovernmental finance, and regional economic development. This fellowship will be offered annually for proposed doctoral-level research dealing with issues of direct and specific relevance to the Greater Washington Metropolitan Area, including, without limitation, issues of economics, public and private finance, education, transportation, law enforcement, social welfare, housing, and regional and community development. It is expected that the research will rely to a significant extent on information and data derived from or relating to the Washington, DC metropolitan area. For example, three of the previous winning topics have included: Distribution of STEM occupations across regional industries; the role of legal aid in empowering impoverished regional residents; and inequality in aspirations and underrepresentation in economic choices in the region.

Please note that you can apply for both fellowships, but will only be eligible to win one.

Fellowship Information

ELIGIBILITY

1. Eligible students must be enrolled at least part-time and meet one of the following two conditions:
 - a. Attend a Consortium institution at the Ph.D. level

3. What if my official transcripts come from a foreign institution and I can't get them by the deadline?

Please contact Linda Larson at Fellowship@EconomicClub.org .

4. When will winners be notified?

Winners will be notified by phone on or before May 11, 2018 by the Economic Club.

5. When will I receive the award and how will it be paid?

Winners will be invited to attend an Economic Club event in the spring of 2018 to receive their award. Payments will be made in in the fall of 2018.

6. If I have a question, to whom can I direct it?

Linda Larson, Scholarship Coordinator, Fellowship@EconomicClub.org .

THE ECONOMIC CLUB OF WASHINGTON, D.C.

Established in 1986 as a non-profit, non-partisan corporation, the Economic Club strengthens and promotes global awareness of the pivotal role that Washington plays in national and world economies.

Our goals are twofold: to create a meaningful forum where eminent global leaders can share their insights about major issues; and to provide a robust peer community for the area's top executives.

Today the Economic Club is a premier hub for heads of companies based throughout the United States and globally. Our speakers represent foreign governments, international non-government organizations, and the largest companies operating throughout the world. These luminaries have included a U.S. President, a former United Kingdom Prime Minister, United States Cabinet officials from five presidential administrations, Speakers of the House of Representatives and other members of Congress, leaders of Fortune Global 500 companies as well as world-renowned economists, business executives and philanthropists

The Economic Club consistently is ranked among the Top 10 speaking forums for CEOs. David M. Rubenstein, Co-Founder and Co-Chief Executive Officer, The Carlyle Group, is the current President. In addition, the Club supports education initiatives through annual doctoral candidate fellowships and scholarship programs for graduating high school seniors planning to attend college.
