David Rubenstein Interviews Michael Neidorff, Dr. Timothy Sands,
Phillip de Picciotto, Mark Ein, and Guylaine Saint Juste
LIVESTREAM EVENT

David Rubenstein will interview five participants in four segments on COVID-19 and the path forward for businesses, universities, and social gatherings during the pandemic.

Segment One

Michael Neidorff has led Centene Corporation's transformation from a closely held $40 million corporation to a publicly traded, Fortune 100 diversified corporation with annual revenues expected to exceed $104 billion in 2020. With the recent completion of its $19.6 billion merger with WellCare Health Plans, Centene provides healthcare solutions through Medicaid, Medicare and the Health Insurance Marketplace to more than 23 million members in all 50 states.

Segment Two

Dr. Timothy Sands of Virginia Tech will discuss the impact of COVID-19 on college campuses and their decisions regarding on-campus learning in the fall.

Segment Three

Philip D.M. de Picciotto of Octagon – Sports and Entertainment Agency and Mark Ein of Venturehouse Group and Managing Owner of Washington, D.C.'s Citi Open will discuss the return of competitive sports.

Segment Four

Guylaine Saint Juste of Year Up – National Capital Region will discuss her organization's work to close the opportunity divide by ensuring that young adults gain the skills, experiences, and support that will empower them to reach their potential through careers and higher education.

The Economic Club of Washington, D.C. Established in 1986 as a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization created to strengthen ties among the diverse and growing business community based in metropolitan Washington, D.C., and with the diplomatic community, The Economic Club of Washington, D.C. promotes global awareness of the pivotal role Washington plays in the national and world economies. Its goals are twofold: to provide a prominent forum where eminent global leaders can share their insights about major issues of the day; and to promote a robust peer community for the area's top executives. Today the Economic Club has over 900 members representing businesses and organizations operating all over the United States and abroad. Featured speakers in recent years have included the Presidents of the United States, Colombia, and Panama; the Prime Ministers of Finland, Israel and Singapore; a former Prime Minister of Great Britain; Speakers of the U.S. House of Representatives; heads of the Federal Reserve Board; every Secretary of the Treasury since 1986; other Cabinet members and government officials; and leaders of Fortune Global 100 corporations. David M. Rubenstein, Co-Founder and Co-Executive Chairman of The Carlyle Group, is the current President.
