

Attention Editors & Reporters

The Economic Club of Washington, D.C. welcomes

Steve Case
Chairman and CEO of Revolution LLC

On the heels of the release of his new book, The Third Wave: An Entrepreneur's Vision of the Future, Mr. Case will join David Rubenstein, President of the Economic Club of Washington to discuss his new book. In the book, he argues that the world is entering a third phase of the technology revolution, a period when entrepreneurs will change the way we live our lives by leveraging new technologies to transform real world sectors like health, education, transportation, energy and food. Success in this new wave, according to Mr. Case, will require a brand new set of skills for CEOs, entrepreneurs, policymakers and ordinary Americans. He offers a forward-thinking roadmap for navigating in this new paradigm in the book.

The Economic Club of Washington, D.C., has for over 25 years played a vital role in shifting the perception of Washington, D.C., from a focus on the city as the center of our national government to a growing awareness of the region as a global business destination. The Club provides a forum for prominent business and government leaders who have influenced economic and public policy both here and abroad. Featured speakers in recent years have included the President of the United States, a former Prime Minister of Great Britain, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, heads of the Federal Reserve Board, every Secretary of the Treasury since 1986, other Cabinet members and government officials, and leaders of Fortune 100 corporations. The Economic Club consistently is ranked among the Top 10 speaking forums for CEOs. David M. Rubenstein, Co-Chief Executive Officer and Co-founder, The Carlyle Group, is the current president. Members represent over 700 businesses and organizations, located in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan region, that are at the forefront of the private sector economy.
